

POWERING THE NEXT GENERATION OF WOMEN LEADERS

The H.E.R. Collective

Honor · Educate · Represent

A national community of philanthropic leaders investing in women's leadership, education, and representation in public life.

Women's representation depends on sustained investment.

The H.E.R. Collective is a new national community of philanthropic leaders committed to expanding women's leadership and participation in public life. Contributions support the Leadership, Development, Education and Research Fund (LDERF) of the National Women's Political Caucus. Those who join now are welcomed as Founding Members, supporting nonpartisan leadership development, civic education, and research that equip women to lead, serve, and shape their communities.

Your Philanthropic Impact

- Nonpartisan leadership development & civic education programs
- Educational resources for women pursuing public leadership
- Research on women's political participation & representation
- Connection to a national community of philanthropic leaders
- Flexible opportunities for annual, endowment, and legacy giving

WHAT YOUR GIFT ADVANCES

Research & education on the issues shaping women's lives.

Your investment supports nonpartisan research, civic education, and leadership development across the issues that most affect women's full participation in public life.

Specific funded activities remain subject to the Fund's charitable purpose and applicable 501(c)(3) requirements.

Help build something new.

As a Founding Member of the H.E.R. Collective, your commitment helps establish this new philanthropic community in support of LDERF, strengthens its foundation for lasting impact, and permanently recognizes you among the visionary leaders who believed in its promise and helped build it from the start.

Women's representation in public life depends on sustained investment in education, research, leadership preparation, and civic participation. H.E.R. Collective members provide the philanthropic resources necessary to build a more inclusive leadership pipeline.

"Investing in the highest level of women's leadership, education, and representation."

A NONPARTISAN INVESTMENT

Your gift supports leadership & research — never candidates or campaigns.

The H.E.R. Collective is a philanthropic program of the NWPC Leadership, Development, Education, Research Fund. Contributions do not fund:

- Candidate endorsements
- Direct contributions to candidates or political committees
- Partisan campaign activities
- Coordinated candidate support
- The NWPC Parity PAC

Individuals interested in supporting NWPC's advocacy or political activities receive separate information about those entities.

WAYS TO GIVE

Gifts may be made by check, credit card, donor-advised fund, appreciated securities, or qualified charitable distribution — paid in full or through installments during the Fund's fiscal year. Membership renews annually.
